

STEVEN A SCOTT, CPA

We are looking for tax preparers and administrative help in the Raytown office, especially during the upcoming tax season.

Tax preparation experience is not required, but there must be a willingness to learn. Bookkeeping experience may be a plus.

Work times are flexible to meet school or family demands but the candidate must be willing to work at least 20 hours per week.

This is a computerized office so the candidate must be comfortable with computer equipment.

Compensation depends upon the level of relevant experience.

We are a client-oriented firm where clients are highly valued and service is important. A positive attitude and a desire to please people is essential!

To apply please e-mail steve@stevescottcpa.com or click on the “E-mail Steve” box on the website! Please include a telephone number.
